Assignments

Word Limits
Word Limits can now be set on Online text submissions.

Submissions exceeding the limit you set will not be accepted. Please note that students are not otherwise made aware of this limit, so if you are using a word limit be sure to indicate this in the assignment’s instructions.

Inline Comments
Instructors are now able to Comment inline on Online text type submissions.

Enabling inline comments in the assignment’s settings will automatically populate the Feedback comments field on the grading page with the student’s submission and allow you to submit inline comments as feedback. Students will see this feedback as a comment on their submission.
Please note that by default text entered in this field will show up as plain black text and may not be easily differentiated from the student’s submission. Using a different text color or italics for your inline comments can help make this distinction.

Logs

Educational Level Criteria
Course logs have been updated to include a new criteria to filter results by educational level.

The options here are defined as:

Teaching: an event or action performed by a teacher (usually) which affects the students' learning experience. This might be for instance, grading a student or adding a module to the course.
Participating: an event or action which could be related to a user's learning experience. This might be for instance a student posting to a forum or submitting an assignment.

Other: Other activities, such as viewing an assignment’s submission status.

Leaving this option set to Educational level will display data from all criteria.

Improved Event Descriptions

Logs now include better event descriptions.

The previous log type can still be accessed by selecting Legacy in the Standard Log field.
