Curriculum Proposal-Child Development-Course and Curriculum Pattern Modification

The Child Development faculty propose the addition of CD 1121, The Child Development Professional to the coursework required for the Certificate of Mastery in Child Development. This change would increase the hours of completion for the Certificate of Mastery in Child Development from 18 credit hours to 19 credit hours.

Motion to approve the modification to the Certificate of Mastery in Child Development by adding CD 1121 The Child Development Professional to the curriculum was made by Dr. Jim Schwark and seconded by Dr. Stephanie Hayes.

For 14; Against 0; Motion Carried

Curriculum Proposal- Leisure Management Studies-Program Deletion

Due to a lack of majors and program graduates; the recommendation is for the Leisure Services Management program to be deleted.

Motion to approve the deletion of the Associate in Arts in Leisure Studies was made by Dr. Jim Schwark and seconded by Ms. Tammy Madden.
Curriculum Proposal- Political Science/Pre-Law-New Course Addition

The Political Science faculty propose to add POLSC 2543 Religion and Politics in America to its course offerings. POLSC 2543 has been offered successfully as a special topics course for a number of semesters and the program faculty would like to add this course to the catalog offerings.

Motion to approve the addition of POLSC 2543 Religion and Politics in America to the Political Science course offerings was made by Dr. Steve Shore and seconded by Dr. Jim Schwark.
