

NO. 5076 STUDENT CONDUCT CODE

1.0 Delegation of Authority and Purpose

- 1.1 The purpose of the Student Conduct process is to promote, engage, and hold students accountable to the standards and core values of Oklahoma City Community College (OCCC).
- 1.2. The responsibility for the campus student conduct process is delegated from the Board of Regents for Oklahoma City Community College (OCCC) to the Provost and Vice President for Student Affairs (Provost) through the College President. The Provost further delegates authority for the student conduct process to the Associate Vice President for Student Affairs.
 - 1.2.1. The Associate Vice President for Student Affairs assigns the daily management of the student conduct process to the Student Conduct Officer for the following purposes: policy interpretation, guidance, and policy application during consultations, case investigations and case adjudications. The Associate Vice President for Student Affairs may delegate case investigations and/or case adjudications to another staff member in matters of potential absence or bias of the Student Conduct Officer.
 - 1.2.2. The Associate Vice President for Student Affairs may investigate and/or adjudicate cases in matters of potential absence or bias of the Student Conduct Officer.
 - 1.2.3. The individual who makes the adjudicative decision of the case will be referred to as the Hearing Officer. The individual assigned to investigate the case will be referred to as the Investigator. Informal case resolutions are typically investigated and adjudicated by the Student Conduct Officer, who has authority to investigate and adjudicate. However, formal case resolutions will be investigated by an Investigator and separately adjudicated by a Hearing Officer.
- 1.3. The provisions in this Student Conduct Code regarding student conduct are designed to help students understand and adhere to OCCC's expectations regarding acceptable behavioral conduct and to provide a means for promoting and supporting a positive educational atmosphere for the members of the OCCC community. The Student Conduct Code is designed to be primarily educational and positive in nature.

2.0 Key Roles and Term Definitions

- 2.1. Active Student: A student who has been enrolled in a credit course within the past six (6) months or is enrolled in the forthcoming semester.
- 2.2. Advisor: An individual who has agreed to assist a complainant or respondent during the student conduct process. The advisor may be another student, a friend, family member, an OCCC faculty or staff member, or an attorney. The advisor is not an active participant in the hearing process. The primary role of the advisor is to help complainants and respondents understand and navigate the student conduct process and procedures. Students are only allowed one advisor during student conduct meetings.
- 2.3. Appellant Student: A student who has filed an appeal request to a student conduct case outcome decision, regarding the findings and/or issued sanctions.
- 2.4. Burden of Proof: The standard by which the designated Hearing Officer will determine whether the Respondent will be held responsible or not responsible for the alleged policy violation(s). OCCC utilizes the preponderance of the evidence standard to determine responsibility in student conduct cases. This burden of proof is sometimes referred to as “more likely than not” or “50% plus a feather.”

- 2.5. College: Oklahoma City Community College shall commonly be referred to as “College” or “OCCC” throughout this policy.
- 2.6. Complainant: Any person who has reportedly been the target, victim, or survivor of another student’s behavior which allegedly violates the Student Conduct Code.
- 2.7. Hearing: An opportunity to be heard and review the relevant and considered information involved in the case and ensuing findings and outcome. Hearings may be an informal or formal process.
- 2.8. Hearing Officer: The designated College official who makes the initial decision of responsibility after an investigation and hearing. The Hearing Officer conducts the investigation and facilitates the adjudication in the informal hearing process. This person or persons may also make the final determination at the conclusion of an appeal hearing.
- 2.9. Inactive Student: Any person possessing an OCCC ID number but not meeting the criteria of an active student, meaning the student has not been enrolled in the last six (6) months and is not currently enrolled in the next forthcoming semester.
- 2.10. Investigator: A designated College official assigned to gather and compare facts and supporting documentation about a reported incident of misconduct. During the formal hearing process, the Investigator is separate from the adjudicator of the case, which will be the Hearing Officer.
- 2.11. Reporting Party: Any person who reports an incident of an alleged violation of the Student Conduct Code. Whereas the Complainant is often the Reporting Party, the Complainant is not always the Reporting Party.
- 2.12. Respondent: The person or student against whom a complaint has been filed under the Student Conduct Code.
- 2.13. Student: Any person who has been admitted to OCCC and has been assigned an OCCC ID number.
- 2.14. Witness: Any person who provides testimony to a Hearing Officer about their observations of an incident under investigation.

4.0 Treatment of Violations

- 4.1. The possible student sanctions, per section 9.0, are possible sanctions that may be imposed, either singularly or in combination, if a violation of the Student Conduct Code is determined. In cases of repeated violations of the Student Conduct Code, the Hearing Officer may consider the student's conduct history and incorporate further sanctions, after the finding(s) of responsibility have been established, as appropriate.
- 4.2. Violations of the Student Conduct Code by any active student may result in one or more sanctions applied in accordance with section 9.0 of this policy.
- 4.3. Violations of the Student Conduct Code by any inactive student may result in penalties, including but not limited to a 6-month "Notice to Leave" issuance from the OCCC Campus Police and the placement of a student conduct hold on the student account preventing future enrollment in any credit or non-credit course for the duration of the Notice to Leave document period. In order for a student conduct hold to be removed from the student's account, a meeting must occur between the inactive student and the designated Hearing Officer. After an investigation of the circumstances surrounding the violation(s), the Hearing Officer may require that appropriate and reasonable safety and/or educational conditions be met prior to the removal of the hold (e.g. mental health assessments, anger management classes, completion of court-mandated requirements, etc.).

5.0 Complaints – Student Conduct

- 5.1. Any member of the College community (faculty, staff or student) or any person who is unaffiliated with the College who has knowledge of an alleged violation of the Student Conduct Code may file a complaint against a student, alleging that a violation of the Student Conduct Code has occurred. The College may initiate a complaint, if such a need arises.
- 5.2. Complaints must be submitted online at www.occc.edu/studentconduct. The complaint must include the date, time, place, name(s) of person(s) involved (e.g., the respondent, complainant, and witnesses) and sufficient detail to make a determination of whether an investigation and/or further safety precautions may be warranted. Questions and/or concerns about filing complaints may be posed or submitted to the Office of the Provost and Vice President for Student Affairs at (405) 682-7834.
- 5.3. After an initial assessment of the complaint, the Associate Vice President for Student Affairs or designee will make the determination as to whether a full investigation or an optional resolution service is warranted. Complainants and Respondents may acquire more information about optional resolution services, such as mediation and restorative justice on the Student Conduct website at www.occc.edu/studentconduct or by calling the Office of the Provost and Vice President for Student Affairs at (405) 682-7834.
- 5.4. The Associate Vice President for Student Affairs or designee may determine if a complaint may be dismissed based upon a lack of merit to the complaint. A lack of merit means there is no identified policy violation specified within the complaint or there is clear and apparent supporting documentation to immediately contradict a complaint during a preliminary inquiry of the complaint.
 - 5.4.1. If initial meetings are needed, notification will be sent to the Complainants and/or Respondents, as outlined in section 6.0.
 - 5.4.2. If initial meetings are not needed and a case dismissal is appropriate, a file will be created which outlines the rationale for the case dismissal.
 - 5.4.3. If students who have been provided with notice, including a request to meet, do not appear before the designated Hearing Officer during the specified date and time, then the information in support of the Reporting Party shall be presented and considered in the absence of the notified students. A decision shall be made without the benefit of the students' input, unless a documented emergency can be verified to account for the students' absence(s).
 - 5.4.4. Complaints may be initiated for incidents where concurrent criminal charges are pending. The College may adjudicate incidents without regard to either pending civil litigation or criminal prosecution. College student conduct proceedings may proceed before, during or after court proceedings. Criminal and/or civil court proceedings are separate from the College student conduct proceedings.

6.0 Complaints – Academic and Discrimination Routes

- 6.1 Academic Integrity incident complaints are investigated and adjudicated by the Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs. The Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs may consult with the Office of the Provost and Vice President for Student Affairs, as the need arises during investigations or adjudications.
- 6.2 Sexual Misconduct and Discrimination or Harassment Based on Sex or Gender complaints are reported to, investigated by, and adjudicated by the Title IX Coordinator or designees. The Title IX Coordinator or designees may consult with the Office of the Provost and Vice President for Student Affairs, to determine conduct history and appropriate sanction(s),, sanction implementation, and prompt and effective actions to stop any harassment or discrimination, prevent its recurrence and remedy the effects of the discriminatory acts as defined in College Policy No. 1012.
- 6.3 Non-Title IX-Based Discrimination or Harassment complaints are reported to, investigated by, and adjudicated by the Director of Equity and Compliance or designee. The Director of Equity and Compliance or designee may consult with the Office of the Provost and Vice President for Student Affairs, to determine conduct history and appropriate sanction(s) or responsive action(s), implementation, and prompt and effective actions to stop any harassment or discrimination, prevent its recurrence and remedy the effects of the discriminatory conduct.

Specifically, the Hearing Officer conducts the investigation and makes the final determination of responsibility and sanction assignments, if any, pending the appropriate appeal procedures, as specified in section 10.0 of this policy.
 - 7.11.1. In the event that the Respondent accepts responsibility for the allegation(s) filed against him/her, the Hearing Officer shall find the student responsible for the policy violations, determine what sanctions will be imposed upon the Respondent, if any, and shall notify the Complainant and Respondent, in writing, which will be sent to his/her official student email account. The Complainant will only be notified of

- the applicable sanctions that directly impact the Complainant.
- 7.11.2. In the event that the Respondent denies the allegation(s) filed against him/her, the Hearing Officer shall make a determination regarding the veracity of the allegations, statements, supporting documentation, and shall notify the Respondent and Complainant in writing, which will be sent to his/her official student email account, of that determination and the sanctions that will be assigned, if any.  - 7.13. After any addendums or revisions have been added at the conclusion of the review and rebuttal period, the Hearing Officer shall submit the final investigations and findings report to the Associate Vice President for Student Affairs for review and decision. The final investigations and findings report shall be submitted to the Associate Vice President for Student Affairs no later than five (5) College business days after the conclusion of the review and rebuttal period.
 - 7.14. During formal hearings, the Associate Vice President for Student Affairs shall render the final determination of responsibility and sanction assignments, if any, within five (5) College business days after receiving the final investigations and findings report, pending the appropriate appeal procedures, as specified in section 10.0 of this policy. The Associate Vice President for Student Affairs shall notify the Complainant and Respondent in writing, which will be sent to their official student email accounts. The Complainant will only be notified of the applicable sanctions that directly impact the Complainant or as otherwise may be required by law.
 - 7.15. In order for a student to be found responsible, the information must support a determination that it is more likely than not, or the preponderance of the evidence, that one (1) or more violations of the Student Conduct Code occurred.
 - 7.16. In cases of repeated violations of the Student Conduct Code, the Hearing Officer may consider the student's previous conduct history and assign a more rigorous sanction load than would be assigned for those without a previous conduct history.

8.0 Temporary Actions

- 8.1 Temporary Remedies or Temporary Sanctions may be imposed to ensure the safety and well-being of College community members, to preserve College property, to ensure student physical or emotional safety, or if the student poses a threat to, disruption of or interference with the educational environment or operations of the College. Temporary remedies and sanctions will be effective immediately to ensure the following:
 - 8.1.1. the safety and well-being of College community members and/or the preservation of College property;
 - 8.1.2. protection against an ongoing threat of disruption or interference with, the normal operations of the College; and/or

- 8.3. Temporary remedies are reasonable adjustments that may be made to provide an interim means of assistance for students prior to or during an investigation of alleged disruptive and/or threatening behaviors. Temporary remedies may be requested through the Hearing Officer by the student or a partnering campus department who may be assisting the student in other areas of his/her academic or social life. Some examples of temporary remedies include, but are not limited to, an academic class section change, a No Contact Order, realignment of academic class groups, adjustments to class attendance or participation requirements, student club or organization attendance, and class or student club or organization participation guideline adjustments or exceptions. Note: The Associate Vice President for Student Affairs or designee will consult with the Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs and/or appropriate faculty to request classroom adjustments or exceptions for attendance and possibilities for assignment make –ups as instructors of record control their own classroom attendance policies.
- 8.4. Temporary sanctions are timely, precautionary safety measures, which may be utilized as a means to address reasonable and supported concerns of alleged disruptive and/or threatening behaviors. Temporary sanctions issued to Respondents will not be more restrictive than necessary to minimize the potential negative impact upon academic success of College community members involved. Some examples of temporary sanctions which may be implemented include, but are not limited to, a loss of privileges, conduct holds on a student account, mental health or anger assessments/evaluations, No Contact Orders, discretionary or educational sanctions, withholding of diplomas, classroom adjustments based upon assessed safety needs, and temporary suspensions.
 - 8.4.1. Temporary Suspension, a type of temporary sanction, is an immediate and temporary separation between a student and the College campus during an initial assessment of a reported violation of this policy and/or during the duration of an investigation, due to the nature of the report, the initial identified patterns of risk or disruptive behavior(s), and/or current danger of presence on the College campus. In instances when a student has been temporarily suspended, a meeting to review the matter shall be scheduled by the Hearing Officer.

- 8.5. Temporary remedies and/or temporary sanctions do not replace the regular student conduct process, as described in sections 7.0, and are not final. The designated Investigator or Hearing Officer will inform the involved parties of the next steps in the student conduct process. The Complainant(s) and Respondent(s), shall be notified of this action and the rationale for the issued temporary remedies and/or sanction(s) in writing. Only one hearing process, informal or formal, will operate in the manner described in sections 7.0 of this policy. Temporary Actions shall remain in place until the student(s) is otherwise notified by the designated Investigator or Hearing Officer or until the findings of the investigation and decision are rendered and issued.

9.0 Sanctions

The following descriptions are possible sanctions which may be assigned, either singularly or in combination. The following sanctions may be assigned for a student or student club or organization, if one (1) or more violations of the Student Conduct Code are determined. While individual sanctions will be managed by the appropriate Hearing Officer, Student Club and Organization sanctions may be primarily managed by Student Life in accordance with the current Club and Organization Manual. - 9.9. Temporary Suspension: A type of temporary sanction, is an immediate and temporary separation between a student and the College campus during an initial assessment of a reported violation of this policy and/or during the duration of an investigation, due to the nature of the report, the initial identified patterns of immediate threat to physical health and/or safety ,disruptive behavior(s), and/or current danger of presence on the College campus. A notation on the transcript is not made; however, a record of the action is maintained in the student's record in the Registrar's Office.
